

Venue Hire

Create a unique experience for your next function at the Jewish Museum of Australia.

For an intimate wedding reception, birthday, kiddush, cocktail party, dinner, meeting, seminar or community organisation event.

We can customise a space that suits your purpose.

The Museum provides a unique setting for a wide range of events in the ground floor gallery where an exhibition will surround your guests. The gallery area can be extended into the Learning Centre by removing the back wall. The choice of spaces, depends on the number of your guests and the nature of your event.

Option 1

Krongold Family Gallery & Learning Centre combined

This is the largest area in the Museum for your event, consisting of the Krongold Family Gallery where the exhibitions are held, combined with the Learning Centre.

Cocktail style – (standing) – 150 people

Theatre style – (seated) – 100 people

Banquet style – (8 x 5'6" round tables) – 80 people

Option 2

Krongold Family Gallery

A beautiful gallery space in which to hold your event.

Cocktail style – (standing) – 90 people

Theatre style – (seated) – 60 people

Banquet style – (6 x 5'6" round tables) – 48 people

Learning Centre

A small space for lectures, meetings or workshops.

Cocktail style – (standing) – 40-50 people

Theatre style – (seated) – 50 people

Banquet style – (3 x 5'6" round tables) – 24 people

We can incorporate exclusive exhibition viewings of our major exhibition on the first floor, into your event to create a unique experience for your guests. With the galleries closed to the public, your guests can explore the gallery and its exhibitions at their leisure.

For your next function, consider the Jewish Museum of Australia – a sophisticated and elegant venue in the unique surrounds of Jewish arts and culture.
